During such time as there are Class B voting rights in existence, a majority of such Directors (i.e., two of three Directors, or three of five Directors, etc., as the case may be), shall be natural persons elected by the Class B Members (who need not be Unit Owners), with the remaining Directors to be natural persons, who are Owners of (an) ownership interest(s) in (a) Unit(s) (other than the Developer, and those to which it has assigned all or any portions of its rights as the Developer) elected by the Class A Members of the Association. After all Class B voting rights have ceased to exist, the Board of Directors shall consist of three (3), five (5), seven (7) or nine (9) [or any other odd number] natural persons (as determined by the Board from time to time), who must be Owners of ownership interests in Units, elected by the members of the Association. Until Class B voting rights are terminated, all Directors shall be elected at the annual meeting of the Association's members and shall serve for one (1) year and until their respective successors are duly elected and qualified. Prior to the first annual meeting of the members of the Association which is to be held after termination of Class B voting rights, the then Board of Directors shall determine the number of persons who shall constitute the Board of Directors for the coming year. At the first annual meeting of the members of the Association which is held after termination of Class B voting rights, all Directors shall be elected. For example, if the number of Directors is five (5), two (2) officers shall be elected for three (3) years, two (2) for two (2) years, and one (1) for one (1) year. Thereafter, at the expiration of each term of office of each respective Director, such Director's successor shall be elected to serve a term of three (3) years. Directors shall, in all events, hold office until their successors have been duly elected and have held their first annual meeting, and until such occurrence, shall possess all of the powers, authorities, duties, discretions and immunities of Directors, which is to say that a sitting Board of Directors shall serve until a new Board has been duly elected and has held its first meeting. There shall be no cumulative voting on Directors. In the event of a tie vote, the election to the office of Director shall be determined by lot or as the then-serving president of the Association shall otherwise determine, in the exercise of his or her reasonable discretion. For purposes of determining whether or not to exercise such option, the size of the Board of Directors shall be deemed to be reduced by one. Vacancies in positions on the Board filled by the vote of Class B Members shall be filled by the remaining Directors elected by Class B Members.
